Pen Prisoner Wounded In Knifing

Four Men Locked In Cells

Inmate Injuries Reported Light

By ROY CAMPBELL
Star Staff Writer

A prisoner at the State Penitentiary was cut in the throat Tuesday afternoon during "yard time" at the institution and at late report was considered in good condition.

William H. Diers, chairman of the Board of Control, said the incident was not of major importance. Diers called the cutting the "kind of thing to expect in that kind of institution."

The prisoner who suffered the cut, which required five stitches, was reported as Kenneth Bauman, 25, of Omaha.

According to Diers, who talked to the day guard in charge when the incident occurred, said close to 500 inmates had been watching a baseball game in the main yard when Bauman walked up to him and said his throat had been cut.

Bauman, according to the guard, had walked unassisted to the prison hospital where his throat was sewed up. Five stitches were required to close the wound, which Diers was told was not serious.

Diers said four inmates had been put in solitary because of the incident. These, Diers said, were in "no way" connected with the men who were working in the prison printing shop at the time Guard John M. Clausen was clubbed to death and his throat slashed.

Bauman, Diers said, was not connected in the investigation of Clausen's death. According to court attorney's officials, the prisoner responsible for the death of Guard Clausen is presently undergoing examination by psychiatrists.

Warden Herbert Hann said that two of the four men being held in their cells for questioning had been among the 22 questioned in the killing of Guard Clausen. The two, though, he said, were working in the laundry at the time and not in the printing shop where Clausen was superintendent.

Hann said the four being held had been going around together as a group and were in the general area of the knifing Tuesday. He added, however, that nothing definite was known on any of the four regarding the recent throat-slashing.

None Want to Talk
"None of the men want to talk about these things. The inmate who was cut doesn't want to talk about it—at least he refused to tell me who did it—and neither does anyone else."

"We don't know for sure that the four men being held had anything to do with it. We are acting on presumption only."

"Nobody wants to tell on anyone else," Hann said.

Hann stressed that "these things, while not an everyday occurrence, do happen in a place like this—and have happened here before."

"The men out here have likes and dislikes—they form their own little groups—and sometimes they get jealous of others. 'Might Have Been Serious'."

"They get in fights and someone gets hit in the nose or scratched, but it's usually nothing too serious," the warden said.

Hann said what made this incident worse than others was "the fact that the man was cut on the neck and it might have been more serious."

"We will keep the man in the hospital until he is completely healed," Hann said.

10 Doctors To Be Feted

Ten Nebraska doctors will be presented with 50-year pins at a banquet of the Nebraska State Medical Association convention at the Cornhusker Hotel Wednesday evening at 7 p.m.

Rep. Walter Judd, M.D., will address the banquet on "A Country Doctor in Washington." Judd is a member of the United States Congress from Minnesota.

Freak Mishap Kills Man, 44

FAIRBURY, Neb. (AP)—Raymond Hermesmeier, 44, of Jansen was killed late Tuesday when a bulldozer being unloaded from a truck slipped into a ditch and pinned him underneath.

The mishap occurred on a highway about 5 miles east of here. The bulldozer slid as Hermesmeier was unloading it from the truck and overturned into a ditch with Hermesmeier beneath. Sheriff Deyo Hughes said the man was killed instantly.

Farmers Get Price Benefit

Binsite Buying Of CCC Corn Now Possible

By JOHN SWANSON
Star Farm Editor

Nebraska farmers and feeders stand to get a price benefit under a modification to the plan for marketing government-held corn.

The state office of the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee announced Tuesday that the feeders, if they so desire, may now buy corn from the Commodity Credit Corporation binsites instead of from local elevators.

However, the purchaser will still have to pay the three-cent mark-up price to the government agency which he formerly paid to the elevator operator. Bob Webb of the ASC office explained that the modification is being offered "as a result of some objections which we have received from feeders."

The new marketing plan in the sale of older corn held in CCC bins, announced earlier this spring, involved having the corn sold through elevators in the area of the binsite instead of from the bins themselves as was previously the case. The ultimate buyer then paid the price of the corn plus hauling charges, a half-cent loading fee and the three-cent mark-up in price permitted the elevator operator.

Under the modification, the buyer will save, if he chooses not to go to an elevator, only the hauling fee. This fee, Webb pointed out, probably averages about a cent and a half a bushel.

The retention of the mark-up, ASC officials explained keeps the binsites from going into competition with the elevators. Under the modification the buyer can only buy corn from bins in a 10-mile radius from his operation.

Fullerton Child Killed By Tractor

FULLERTON, Neb. (AP)—Fullerton services were held this week at the Methodist Church for Valerie Travers, 15 months, killed when her father backed his tractor out of a shed, a wheel passing over the child's body. She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Teddy Travers, farm family northeast of here.

NU 'Panty Raid' Irks Mayor Jeary

Mayor Clark Jeary soundly censured the action of University of Nebraska students in the springtime "raid" on the women's dormitory and a promised court action if individuals taking part could be identified.

The mayor said he fully realized the matter was a University affair which "will probably be adequately handled by the chancellor and the regents." He said, however, that it disturbs him when there is interference by anyone with police or fire equipment.

During the demonstration, students "ganged" a fire truck that had been summoned to douse the mid-street bonfire. The firemen turned students back with fire hoses, but lost two fire extinguishers in the fray, along with firemen's clothing, and had the extinguishers turned back on them.

The mayor said he thought the most effective way to "stop these disgraceful occurrences is for the chancellor and regents to suspend as many students as they prove participated in such unlawful assembly, both male and female."

He continued that the University has at its command not only the ROTC military, but could have called Governor Robert Crosby with a request for aid from the National Guard.

Mayor Jeary said the city will endeavor to have police protection for photographers if an opportunity arises.

'West Is Chalking Up Loss'

Pessimism At Geneva; Big Victory For Reds

By KINGSBURY SMITH
GENEVA (INS)—A wave of profound pessimism bordering on despair swept free nation circles at the Geneva conference Tuesday night as belief grew among delegates the West was writing off the loss of most, if not all of Indo-China to Communism.

The view prevailed strongly among many of these delegates that international Communism was on the verge of achieving its greatest diplomatic victory over the free world after having inflicted on France the worst military defeat that nation has suffered since the end of World War II.

Dulles Speech
Belief that the Western powers are giving up hope of saving Indo-China, or at least the strategically-important northern part, was strengthened by the new conference statements of U. S. Secretary of State John Foster Dulles in Washington Tuesday.

(Dulles said the loss of Indo-China would not necessarily mean the loss of the rest of Southeast Asia, but stressed he did not want for a minute to underestimate the importance of the three Indo-China states nor to give the impression that the U. S. believes they are going to be lost. Prior to the Geneva conference he refused to consider the fall of Indo-China as probable.)

French delegation sources said news of what Dulles had said hit French Foreign Minister Georges Bidault like a thunderbolt.

Abandoned Hope?
These sources added that only Tuesday morning Bidault felt that the only hope of getting the Communist-led Vietnam to modify what an American spokesman described as "unconditional surrender" terms for peace in Indo-China was for the U. S. to issue a strong warning it would not tolerate the loss of Indo-China to Communism.

Instead Bidault was shown press dispatches Tuesday night quoting Dulles as stating the whole situation would not be hopeless if Indo-China was lost.

This statement was interpreted by the French delegation as implying the U. S. has abandoned hope of saving Indo-China and was preparing American public opinion for its possible loss to Communism.

(See story on Dulles statements on Page 13.)

Today's Chuckle

The professor was aroused in the wee small hours by the ringing of his phone. It turned out to be a wrong number and the caller was duly apologetic.

"Think nothing of it!" said A.M.P. "I had to get up to answer the phone anyway!"

Waters Swirl Through Waco

Low sections of Waco, Texas, like the street intersection above, were flooded Tuesday by a five inch downpour of rain. The rain was the heaviest since the eight inch deluge that just one year ago to the day accompanied the tornado that killed 114 persons, injured 400 persons and resulted in property damage of more than $60 million dollars. ## Omaha Police Commissioner, Improvements Head Defeated

OMAHA (AP)—Two incumbent Omaha City Councilmen apparently failed in their bid Tuesday for re-election. They were Public Improvements Commissioner William E. Hinchey and Police Commissioner Harold Caldwell.

Apparently finishing third in the voting was Henry Boesen, former police chief who was dismissed by Caldwell some time ago. The final tallies, unofficial, were:

John Rosenblatt, incumbent, 22,993; Simon A. Simon, 23,261; Boesen 23,078; Arthur J. Hanson, 21,493; William Milner, incumbent, 20,735; Walter Spellman, incumbent, 20,710; Warren Swiger, 20,248; Hinchey, 19,868; Caldwell, 19,516; Emmet A. Gardiner, 19,502; Charles Lee-man, 19,023; Albert Tuttle, 18,609; William Donovan, 14,792; Richard Jepson, 12,149.

Waverly Rural Fire District Meet Hears Heated Charges

By ALLEN EDEE
Star Staff Writer

Charges were flung at a special hearing Tuesday night that some farmers in the Waverly area were relying on free fire service from Lincoln for fire protection.

The hearing, held at the county commissioners office in the Courthouse, was called by the commissioners to hear proponents and opponents of a proposed Waverly Rural Fire Protection District.

County Commissioner Russell Brehm said that a decision would be made by Tuesday at the latest whether to call an election on the proposed district which encompasses 70 square miles.

A petition signed by 13 persons was brought before the commissioners after the hearing had begun. The petitioners opposed their being included in the fire protection district.

Eighty-eight persons had previously petitioned, the commissioners to create such a district.

Tax Allergy
Frank Jacoby, who presented the petition, said that "most of the group feel allergic to more taxes."

Proponents for the district then asserted that some petitioners were attempting to get out of paying for fire service.

County Commissioner Chris Kuhn said, "I don't think it's fair for taxpayers in Lincoln to pay for fires outside the city limits."

Opponents of the district countered that they were willing to pay for any fire service received from Lincoln or anywhere.

The county commissioners have three alternatives to decide upon. They can:

1. Enlarge the present proposed district.
2. Keep the district as presently proposed.
3. Contract the present proposed district.

Group Formed For Havelock Building Plans

The Havelock Community Building Association was formed Tuesday night and John Hobbs, president of the Havelock Businessmen's Association, and Clarence Patterson, president of the Farmer's Institute, were elected co-chairmen.

Stevens Protests And Dirksen Plan Is Defeated

Mundt Votes 'No' As Gesture Of 'Fairness'

Joe Says 'Shocked'

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sec. of the Army Stevens telephoned a veto Tuesday—while at home watching the proceedings on television—and so a last-ditch Republican move to cut short the McCarthy-Army public hearings was defeated, 4-3.

In the stormy aftermath of a stormy day devoted entirely to argument over cut-it-short proposals, Senate investigators agreed to vote today on a strongly-backed new move to hold night as well as day sessions hereafter.

The decisive vote—on a proposal by Sen. Dirksen (R-Ill.) to shorten the public phase of the inquiry—came after Joseph N. Welch, counsel to the Army, twice left the hearing room and telephoned the virus-stricken Sec. Stevens.

With TV cameras recording the remarkable—and probably unprecedented scene—Welch finally reported the Army secretary felt the Dirksen proposal "would not result in fairness."

That settled it. Acting Chairman Mundt (R-SD) had announced beforehand that he'd vote against the proposal, even though he himself favored it, if either side thought it would result in unfairness or injustice. Mundt proceeded to vote with the three Democrats against the Dirksen proposal, and it was defeated.

McCarthy Angry
Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis.) protested angrily that "I'd been misled. He said he'd been given to understand during the noon hour that Welch would accept the proposal—that Welch, in fact, had suggested some changes so as to make it acceptable."

The Wisconsin lawmaker—"shocked beyond words," he said—declared this looked to him like bad faith on the part of the Army counsel. He demanded Welch be put on the stand to explain why he "welshed" on an agreement.

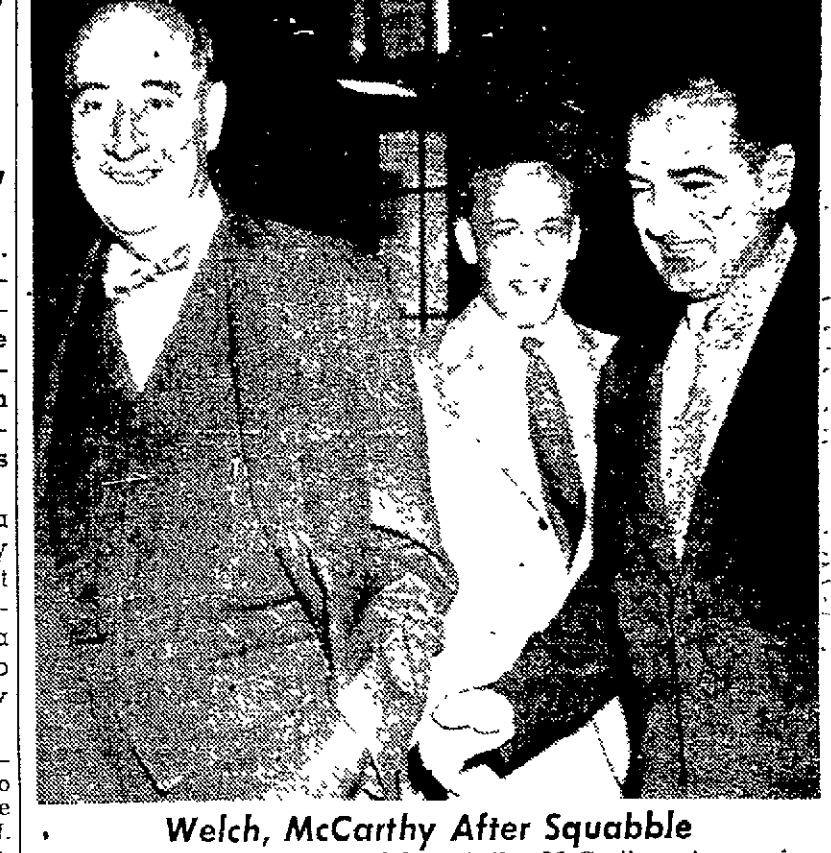

Welch protested complete innocence. He said he made no suggestions during the noon hour and entered into no agreement. As a matter of fact, he said, he did nothing but have lunch and retire to a quiet room where he lay down on a long couch and rested.

What it all added up to was that all six principals in the controversy, and not just Stevens and McCarthy, will testify and be cross-examined in televised public session. Other witnesses likewise may be questioned in public, and the whole thing may take weeks or months.

Behind Closed Doors
Dirksen's proposal would have recessed the public hearings after Stevens and McCarthy testified. Additional testimony would have been taken behind closed doors, with word for word transcripts handed out to the press. Also, the subcommittee could have gone ahead with its regular work while the inquiry continued.

Democrats sharply attacked this proposal, contending the six key figures at least should testify in public and on TV just as Stevens has done for part or all of 13 days.

Sen. McClellan (D-Ark.) charged it would be "a flagrant travesty on American standards of justice and equity" to close the doors on part of the inquiry. He introduced a motion simply to limit the time of further testimony. That motion was defeated, the four Republicans voting down the three Democrats.

Welch, McCarthy After Squabble

Ferguson To Ask Quick 29 Billion Defense Fund

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Ferguson (R-Mich.) said he will push for quick Senate approval of more than $29 billion dollars of defense funds to carry out President Eisenhower's "New Look" for the nation's armed forces.

Despite Communist gains in Indo-China and some protests by Democrats in Congress, Ferguson said he expects Senate passage of the new look military budget, which involves reductions in ground forces and emphasis on air power.

Man Slugged, Robbed Of $5

Thomas Therrel of 437 So. 12th was reported in good condition at a local hospital early Wednesday after he was slugged and robbed in an alley between 11th and 12th and K and L.

Police said Therrel suffered a bump on his head and cuts when an unidentified assailant asked him for a match and then hit him with a filled bottle. His billfold containing $5 was taken by the assailant.

Changes In Bus Routes Start Today

J. H. Schleckmann, manager of the Lincoln City Bus Lines, reported Tuesday two changes in bus routes affecting buses on So. 10th and the State Hospital run.

The new runs will become effective Wednesday. The change will combine the So. 10th and State Hospital routes, with six trips now being planned daily to the hospital.

Under the new schedule, the So. 10th run will continue to F. go west to 9th, south on 9th to Smith, east on Smith to 10th again, then south on 10th to Van Dorn. From 10th the route will turn east on Van Dorn to 11th, then turn north on 11th to Hill, and will go west on Hill to 10th where it will return to the center of town on the same route it leaves.

Six trips to the State Hospital will be made down 9th St. and will return by the same route. Drivers on the line have been instructed to hand out new schedules of the changed routes.

Schleckmann said the changes were made because neither of the lines has been paying its way and that the combined routes will be more economical.

Corn Acreage Limit Success Not Yet Known

Just how well farmers comply with corn acreage allotments in Nebraska this year will soon be seen.

Federal agricultural officials in Lincoln said Tuesday that many farmers are probably "still making up their minds" on the allotment choice. One said that, while a few scattered early-birds have gone into the field with corn planters, the big move will not get underway until late this week or early next week.

Although May 10 is the traditional date for starting corn planting, the recent cool, wet weather over corn producing areas has set back planting. Recent reports are that some farmers have come to fear a glutted market this fall to the extent that they may alter earlier plans to ignore corn allotments.

Only Nine Miss 2nd Polio Shots

Dr. James T. Googe, city-county health director, reported Tuesday that only nine of close to 1,500 second graders in the county failed to show up for the second polio shots given this week.

Those who missed the shots, Dr. Googe said, can make them up Friday at 9 a. m. at the City-County Health Department building at 10th and R Sts.

Home Robbed

Mrs. Edith Bortz of 1702 So. 4th reported to police that her home was entered through a basement door and a billfold containing $28 was taken.

French Will Send Copters To Dien Bien Phu— Removal Of Wounded 'Authorized' By Reds

... Mercy Meeting Arranged At Fallen Fort

From Press Dispatches
SAIGON, Indo-China — Vietnam Gen. Von Guyen Giap announced Tuesday night he had "decided to authorize" the French to remove their seriously wounded from Dien Bien Phu.

Giap made his announcement over the Vietnam Radio a few hours after Gen. Henri Navarre, French commander in Indo-China, had asked Giap to arrange evacuation of the approximately 1,300 wounded stranded at the fortress when it fell to the Communist-led rebels on Friday.

Both the appeal and the response followed agreement by French and Vietnamese representatives at the Geneva conference for the opposing commanders to arrange for removing the French union battle casualties.

Giap directed the French to send representatives in helicopters "clearly bearing the insignia of the Red Cross" to the northern end of the shattered fortress' flying field. He requested the French to set the date and hour for the meeting.

French transport planes dropped hundreds of pounds of medical supplies at the conquered fortress Tuesday. A Vietnamese broadcast said earlier that all French union medical personnel had been authorized to remain at Dien Bien Phu to care for the wounded. But there was no word as yet as to whether Genevieve de Gaulle, the lone French woman nurse at the fortress, was with her charges.

It is hoped that the mercy meeting may produce details about the last days of the fallen bastion and its survivors, including the fate of Brig Gen. Christian de Castries, his men and the "Angel of Dien Bien Phu" — Nurse de Gallard Terraube.

The Vietnam have claimed the capture of Castries.

Helicopters Readied

About 20 helicopters have been readied for flight to evacuate the wounded. Helicopter and plane crews and nurses have been kept on the alert for the mission.

In the Red River Delta, the French union Air Force opened an offensive against rebel units entrenched there. The French reported destroying three villages used by Vietnam as an attack base.

There was a growing impression here that Giap intends to press his military campaign well into the summer, even though the heavy monsoon rains have already started. Unofficial sources said his objective was believed to be colonial Route 5 linking Hanoi with the key port of Haiphong, 60 miles away.

The French have fought many bloody engagements to keep that road open. Should Giap cut it, he would sever Hanoi's principle supply route to the outer world.

Virgil Fox Proven 'Top Favorite' At Recital On St. Paul Organ

By RUTH ARDIS

Virgil Fox, noted concert and recording organist, proved himself a "top favorite" with the large crowd of music lovers assembled at St. Paul's Methodist Church Tuesday night.

Mr. Fox, recognized as one of the great virtuosos of our day, gave the appearance of a jovial young man who was playing an informal program for a group of friends who had come to spend an enjoyable evening with him. His simple explanations and program notes on the selections which he played, mixed with a bit of his own philosophy, added to the rapport between artist and audience. Mr. Fox is certainly not only a great musician but also a great person.

Bach and Handel, recognized as great organists in their day, would probably have been surprised if they had heard their compositions as presented by Mr. Fox. Since the modern organ dates from about 100 years after the death of Bach, there is an expressiveness in the present-day interpretation which was inconceivable at the time the work was written. The changing tone color of the theme of the Alle-gretto from Concerto IV by Handel, coupled with the joyous dance rhythm made a delightful opening for the concert.

Bach Works Favored
The chorale "Come Sweet Death" by Bach, as it built majestically in intensity and volume caught the audience in its grip, and the spell was not broken until after the last notes of the Prelude and Fugue in D Major. The Bach works were undoubtedly the favorites of the evening — partially because the grandeur of design and rich, full counter-point of Bach's music make it especially effective for organ, and partially because of their masterful interpretation on last night's concert.

The second group consisting of a Lullaby by Grouvlez and Sonata by Elgar were played with great expression and coloring. Mr. Fox's choice of stops showed a complete mastery of the instrument. Many organists, playing on an instrument not "their own" limit themselves to a few familiar stops and set combinations. Not so Mr. Fox, for he displayed an amazing variety of tone color combined with such gracefulness and ease of performance that it was hard to believe his familiarity with that particular organ was based on a few short hours of practice in Lincoln. The fourth movement of the Sonata was replaced by Elgar's famous "Pomp and Circumstance".

Virtuosity Shown
Bossi's "Giga," in which delicacy and precision were the keystones, was followed by the melancholy mood of the slow movement of the Sonata by Sowerby. A magnificent toccata, "Thou, Peter, Art the Rock" by Mulet brought the program to a thrilling climax.

MARLENE HARMS

Missing Girl Was Seen By Waitress

An air of mystery has surrounded the disappearance Friday morning of 14-year-old Whit-lie Junior High School student Marlene Harms.

The only clue to Marlene's whereabouts is identification of the girl by waitresses at the Burlington Depot cafe who said the girl was seen there until 11:15 Friday morning.

Marlene lived with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Harms of 3002 Q St. who spend their week-ends on a farm at Adams, Neb. Mrs. Harms said Marlene was last seen by her at 7:15 Friday morning.

The girl, according to her parents, apparently phoned a girl friend and told her she was packed and was leaving. The girl friend, Mrs. Harms said, evidently thought Marlene wasn't serious about the threat and dismissed it.

According to police, the 11:15 train was destined for Omaha, but circulars have been sent to state police in every state requesting they help locate Marlene.

According to school records, Marlene was a good student and was a member of the girl's chorus and was captain of her home room. She had missed only 16 days of school since the first of the school year.

Mrs. Harms, who said her daughter didn't date, said Marlene had only $21 when she left home.

The girl is 5 feet 6 inches tall, weighs 145 pounds, has dark brown hair, dark brown eyes, and fair complexion. Mrs. Harms said that although she is only 14, she could easily pass for being 18.

The Perry family were passengers in a car driven by Joseph Sebastian, 30, of Ft. Smith, Ark.

There were 201 placements during the week, of which 44 were single farm hands and 64 were beet workers.

'Of Course' Spry Gal, 90, Does All Her Own Work

MARILYN K. SWANSON Star Staff Writer

Mrs. Sophie Tingaard of 1330 Garfield wound up her 90th birthday celebration Tuesday by baking an angel food cake, a coffee cake, and inviting eight friends in for the afternoon.

She started her birthday festivities Saturday when the Danish Sisterhood and Brotherhood held a party for her. "I got home about 11:30 that night but I didn't go to bed until after 1," she confessed.

The active Lincolnite was 90 on Sunday and observed the day by cooking her own breakfast, attending services at her church—Our Savior's Lutheran—cooking her lunch, and visiting her son's home where another birthday party was held for her. Sunday evening, "my best friends" visited her.

With a schedule that would exhaust a teen-ager, Mrs. Tingaard replied, "I should say so," when asked if she did her own work.

She had an operation that kept her in the hospital a week last June but "Since the day I got out of the hospital, I've been doing my own work."

That work includes caring for a five-room home, a vegetable and flower garden, and doing handwork.

Born in Copenhagen, Denmark, in 1864, Mrs. Tingaard came to Lincoln on Aug. 14, 1891. "I thought it was a terrible town—there were no sidewalks and only two bathrooms in the whole town. Of course, I had come from Copenhagen which was a modern big city," she said.

She met her husband in Lincoln the first Christmas she was

It has a slower rate of diffusion and evaporation than any other type of fragrance and was originated by Houbigant. Try their Chantilly Liquid Skin Sachet. Only $1.85 plus tax at better stores.

Bringing Lincoln Up To Date

Some of the 11 proposals to appear on the ballot for a special election in the city of Lincoln, tentatively fixed for June 15, simply embody common sense.

For example, the proposal to empower the City Council to invest idle funds in government securities ought not to be the inspiration for a spirited debate. Likewise the Council should have the power to prescribe jail sentences as well as fines for certain ordinance violations handled in municipal court. Any law enforcement suffers when teeth are lacking to impose penalties which really hurt.

On other matters the public needs information and a lot of it. One of these is the proposal for $3.5 million of storm sewer bonds; another, Council authority to issue off-street revenue bonds, which means simply that the development would pay for itself in time and not contribute to an additional tax increase.

The point is that back of these 11 proposals is an effort to improve city government. The people may differ sharply with what seems to be a program of giving the Council much more authority than it now possesses, but at least the proposals should be set forth through discussion in advance of the election.

Improved Outlook

In Nebraska the fat still was in the fire. Nebraska's wheat prospects for 1954 were looking up as a result of recent rains, the United States Department of Agriculture reported, with the prospect of a million bushels more of the bread grain than forecast only a month earlier.

Where moisture deficiency and drought in certain southwestern and western Nebraska counties contribute to uncertainty, the fact remains that Nebraskans may become sorry for themselves prematurely. Only in recent years have Nebraska wheat growers harvested those bumper crops. Back over the years Nebraskans thought they were in clover whenever the harvest produced a crop of 60 million bushels of wheat. Now if it is not substantially more than that, it becomes a poor crop season.

Probably one of the most enlightening reports which places Nebraska in second spot in

Of Men And Things

By J. E. LAWRENCE

On the national scene Monday, one of the strangest of strange incidents took place. A man well-known to his fellow Americans addressed a National Press Club luncheon. The Associated Press news report contained this sentence: "The turnout of 552 was the largest in a long series of luncheons at which outstanding world figures have been the guest speakers."

The incident, which is not quite the right word for that press club luncheon, might provide worried Republicans with an answer to the current GOP problem child. In all of the ugliness of McCarthyism, the realization of which is slowly sinking into the minds of the American people, the solid fact remains that Sen. McCarthy has occupied the role of a greater source of news and monopolizer of the headlines since the Eisenhower administration came into office than when Mr. Truman occupied the White House. Mr. Truman left Washington a little less than 16 months ago in an atmosphere of happy farewell to the exalted office which he had occupied, and in a publicly expressed good-will and sincere co-operation in the effort to lighten the burdens of his successor. Forgotten now but one of the very great acts which former President Truman performed was sending a directive to every executive agency under him that it exert all efforts to assist and to help the incoming administration in picking up the burden of responsibility. That directive went to every cabinet member of the Truman administration and to the head of every agency of lesser rank. Mr. Truman had just suffered an unmistakable defeat, although Adlai Stevenson was the party's nominee for the presidency. But the former President had campaigned ardently for Mr. Stevenson. He had crossed the country on a whistle-stop tour. And Republican strategy called for centering fire upon Mr. Truman himself. It was an emphatic repudiation that accompanied the cry for a change, a devastating defeat. And when the votes had been counted and the results made known, a man of short temper who expressed himself frequently in blunt language smiled, and out of the vast knowledge of the burdens of his own office spoke only in kindly spirit of his successor.

May Be An Answer To McCarthy

They jammed the facilities of the National Press Club in Washington Monday—these cynical Washington newspapermen. They filled it to overflowing. And it was not the first time, by any means, in recent months that something expressing a new respect for a man who had been the target for such sharp criticism — some of it deserved — has manifested itself. He has been honored at many meetings and unbelievably people have hung on his words—not his bitter critics, to be sure, but a great many undoubtedly who had voted for his successor.

It is a dog-eared, hackneyed expression to speak of the burdens of the presidency. They are real and they are crushing. In his campaign his advisers inspired President Eisenhower to talk of those burdens far too lightly. No doubt today if he were in a position to speak out, which he is not, he would express a desire to eat a lot of his words. Asia is not the simple problem he and those who participated with him seemed to think it was during the campaign. He puts out the fire in Korea and discovers a much more dangerous blaze in the jungles of Indo-China. He had left his job in Europe in NATO with Western Europe and the United States in close accord, and now he finds after 16 months of his own handling of foreign policy, a deep division between long-standing allies. Mr. Eisenhower knows full well the importance of the reciprocal trading agreement program—he may have been aware of the fight Harry Truman had to make for it—but Mr. Eisenhower now recognizes that despite his desire it be continued, he may find it impossible to do anything about it. That is the way it goes step by step, and beyond the fact that newspapermen know that, in or out of office, Harry Truman cannot be ignored, that overflow gathering of Monday was highly significant.

Azain, The Burdens Of Presidency

If the Republicans plan to deal with McCarthy, it will be necessary to cut him down to size. That calls for leadership which takes the play in the headlines away from him.

Jenkins Not Seen As Impartial Counsel

WASHINGTON — Democratic senators were surprised to hear Ray Jenkins, the man they had picked as supposedly impartial counsel of the McCarthy probe, laud McCarthy's investigation of Ft. Monmouth as a great public service.

Jenkins' statement was in the face of a finding by Secretary of the Army Stevens that not one case of espionage had been found at Monmouth, also in the face of exhaustive surveys written by the New York Times, the Washington Post, and the staunchly Republican New York Herald Tribune, calling the Ft. Monmouth probe a tempest in a teapot.

Senators have now discovered a significant statement by Jenkins indicating that he used religious prejudice as a political weapon in a local Tennessee election.

"The Trouble-makers," published by B'nai B'rith's Anti-Defamation League, reports that in a campaign between Judge H. B. Webster and Mrs. Harry Strauss for the Knox County domestic relations court, Jenkins helped lead the opposition to Mrs. Strauss on the ground that she and her supporters were conducting a "devil's crusade" against Christian principles. Mrs. Strauss is Jewish.

Speaking before the Knox County Young Republican Club, Jenkins said:

"It is a campaign of fanatics—a select group—that will stop at nothing. And yet they have the nerve to call it a crusade. They conducted the same crusade against Christ, and they carry on down through the present day and those who believe in the things Christ stood for will not tolerate it." Senators did not know of this statement at the time Jenkins was appointed.

Note: At Ft. Monmouth, 17 out of the 19 suspended for security reasons were Jewish. Yet not one was even remotely accused of espionage. One was suspended merely because he had read a book by Max Lerner, a liberal writer for the New York Post who never has been a Communist. However, because a Signal Corps worker at Ft. Monmouth was seen reading Max Lerner, he was suspended during the wave of suspicion and terror which swept the Signal Corps.

All this was why Secretary Stevens felt that the probe had gone too far, and proposed reinstating many of the suspended employees. A security suspension, he knew, can result from a mere complaint from a jealous co-worker. It does not necessarily mean guilt. It was this McCarthy probe which Committee Counsel Jenkins described as a great public service.

BEHIND GENEVA DEFEAT

There were so many reasons for the defeat we took in Geneva that they can't all be listed in one column.

But aside from the first major error in not preparing for intensive trouble in Indo-China the minute Soviet arms were released by the Korean truce, here are the highlights of what went wrong in our backstage negotiations:

The man who saw the Indo-Chinese danger most clearly was Adm. Arthur Radford, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff. Radford played an amazing, almost unbelievable role as one-man lobbyist to draw the allies into Indo-China. However, he was so active and such a go-getting salesman that he overplayed his hand. The British feared that he wanted to go too far.

It was Radford who put the French up to requesting direct

GOP Fears Effects Of McCarthy On Voters

WASHINGTON — Senator Dirksen's strenuous efforts to end the McCarthy Army hearings reflect his apprehensions not just as a Republican but as chairman of the Senate Campaign Committee.

The White House and the Republican National Committee have let it be known that they will not use McCarthy next fall in any way, shape or form. They will not even implicitly sponsor him by making arrangements for him on request from within the states.

Instead, Vice President Nixon and a cabinet team will be put forward to promote the Eisenhower administration and lead the cheers for its program. The President will play an important part, too, but the effort will be to keep him in the nonpolitical role that he so strongly prefers.

The professionals who run the Senate Campaign Committee still believe that McCarthy has a following that individual candidates for the Senate and House need. They are reluctant to see their own liaison with him imperiled by long hearings which clearly will serve to emphasize his differences with the party, even if such drastic ends as perjury indictments can be avoided.

They recognize that he himself threw down the gauntlet to the administration when he demanded that it open to him the loyalty files of government employees. But if they can keep him out of trouble with the Senate, avoiding a roll call in which the issue would be drawn between him and the President, they figure they can use his help this fall in such congressional candidates as desert it.

Their problem is that McCarthy, when cornered, lays about him in all directions. If matters reach the point where the Sen-

AS OTHERS SEE IT

Fort Monmouth—Case History

Editor's Note — Walter Mills, military analyst for the New York Herald Tribune, believes that the Army-McCarthy inquiries at the Signal Corps center have done heavy damage to military research. The scientists' review of the case indicates that modern defense requires the best use of scientific minds, not harassment by reckless methods of political frenzies. He discusses the subject as follows:

The suspension of Dr. Robert Oppenheimer for "security" review was a sensational manifestation, at the highest levels of our military scientific effort, of difficulties in the "security" procedure which has already appeared, on a more modest plane, in the cases of the suspended scientists of the Signal Corps Engineering Laboratories at Ft. Monmouth.

For this reason, the recent report on the whole Ft. Monmouth episode, by a special committee of the Federation of American Scientists, deserves very careful reading and reflection.

That the trained scientific worker has become one of the most critical elements in any adequate military organization or defense establishment is today beyond dispute.

That men possessing these difficult skills are seldom of a military bent of mind is a matter of common observation. They cannot ordinarily be produced by the regimented training techniques and disciplines used to develop military commanders.

They do not work easily or fruitfully under military organization; they do not think like military men, and they can—as the cases of Nunn, May and Fuchs showed—develop tragically exaggerated ideas of social responsibilities with which their scientific skills endow them.

The necessity for enlisting such men in the most secret councils of the military establishment presents a security problem. The report on Ft. Monmouth of the scientists' committee stresses its reality and its difficulty.

That the Communists have tried, and on certain known occasions (as with Fuchs) succeeded, in exploiting their rather special panies. The second will be the atomic energy plants. These, too, will be given to private companies along with an estimated 30-million-dollar subsidy. When this has been accomplished, the present administration will, in my opinion, have succeeded in giving away more of the people's property than did President Grant's administration.

Franklin D. Roosevelt's administration was known as the "New Deal" and Harry S. Truman's, as the "Fair Deal." I think it would be very fitting if Dwight D. Eisenhower's administration should come to be known as the "Big Steal."

Great Promiser

Lebanon, Neb.

To the editor of The Lincoln Star: After reviewing some of President Eisenhower's campaign speeches, I have come to the conclusion that since Abraham Lincoln was known as the "Great Emancipator" and Franklin D. Roosevelt, the "Great Humanitarian," President Eisenhower should be known as the "Great Promiser."

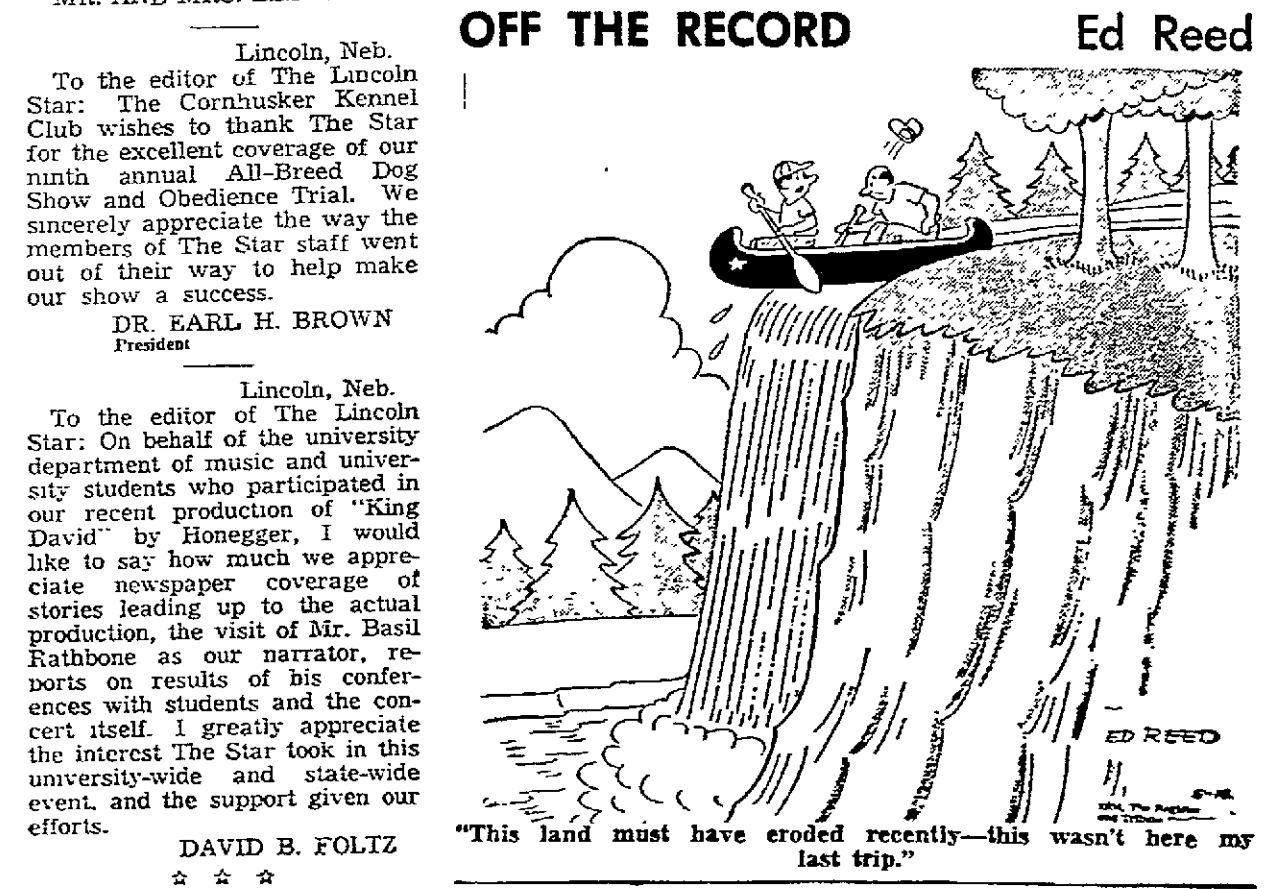

The Eisenhower administration, having succeeded in giving the "Midlands oil lands away, now plans two other big giveaways. The first of these will be the big hydro-electric plants which were built with the people's tax money. These will be given to the private power com-

To the editor of The Lincoln Star: In this McCarthy-Army controversy, there is found just one feature of deep concern to our body politic. It is that of how far and to what depths a United States senator will go in securing the appointment of a rich man's son to a preferential post to escape Army service.

Southern Panhandle, Southwest Wheat Still Badly In Need Of Rain

Wheat has improved in the eastern two-thirds of Nebraska, thanks to rains during the last half of April and the first days of May.

But the western third of the state got the short end of the moisture and wheat is needing moisture badly in the southern Panhandle and in most of southwest Nebraska, the State-Federal Division of Agricultural Statistics reported.

Much of the 14 per cent of the wheat crop acres which have been abandoned are in Kimball County and the southwest. Lack of moisture may cause more abandonment in the southwest because some wheat has showed effects of the drought for two weeks or more.

Little Corn Planting
Very little corn has been planted, but planting should proceed rapidly as soon as the soil warms up. The soil moisture supply now is good in the state's eastern two-thirds, particularly in the northeast quarter.

Freezing weather this month caused some damage to tips of wheat leaves throughout most of the state. There were a few reports that some wheat which had jointed might have been injured, but in most cases, the snow cover minimized the damage.

A few reports of freeze damage to spring small grain also were received but this generally was not serious. Some damage to sugar beets "more or less" was noted and some replanting will be necessary. Reports on freeze damage to fruits vary.

Freeze Kills Weeds
The freeze killed weeds that were just coming up in spring small grain fields. Ice forming on trees resulted in considerable breakage of limbs in some counties. Hail was reported in Saline, Thayer and Jefferson Counties, with greatest damage in Jefferson County where a strip of hail averaged 15 miles wide and 20 to 25 miles long.

Alfalfa, wild hay and pasture show some improvement despite the cool, freezing weather. Damage to alfalfa leaves from the freeze was reported through most of the state, and in a few cases there was some damage to the stems. Mills have started to dehydrate alfalfa in central Nebraska.

Temperatures last week averaged about 5 degrees below normal in the west, to more than 10 degrees below in the east. The week's few light showers were in the central and west.

No precipitation was measured during the week ending Monday at such points as Grand Island, Lincoln, Norfolk, Omaha, Burwell, Valentine, Imperial and Sidney. Amounts at other points included Lexington .12 of an inch, North Platte .09, Chadron .10, and Scottsbluff .01.

Precipitation reports for the period April 1-May 10:

	Eastern Division	Western Division	Central Division
Av. past week	1.41	.58	1.16

Budget-Balance Efforts To Mean Fewer Jobs—Treasury Chief

Temporary Decrease Predicted

WASHINGTON (INS)—Treasury Secretary George Humphrey frankly admitted that the Eisenhower administration's efforts to balance the budget will mean fewer jobs for many people.

The treasury secretary told a CIO National Employment Conference, however, that the administration hopes the decrease in the total number of jobs for people will be temporary.

Humphrey said the administration will turn back to industry and individuals this year a total of seven billion, 400 million dollars in tax reductions, which he hopes will stimulate business and make more employment.

He also declared the administration has a legislative program before Congress aimed at insuring continued national prosperity.

Immediate Steps
Humphrey was told by David J. McDonald, president of the United Steel Workers: "We do hope the administration will take immediate steps to implement it because we do have nearly five million unemployed."

Earlier, CIO President Walter Reuther accused the Eisenhower administration of using "pious phrases and double talk" on the problem of unemployment and urged that the Democrats be returned to power in Congress.

Reuther angrily lashed out at the Republicans in opening the conference attended by CIO delegates from throughout the nation.

He declared: "As long as the Republicans remain in power, we are in trouble. In November, we have the opportunity to even the score. I believe there is a growing need to make a change in congressional representation. We have got to relate the ballot box to the bread box."

Disgusting Spectacle
The labor leader asserted the GOP administration should be devoting its energies to bolstering the economy and halting Red aggression in Asia.

Reuther commented: "What do we find instead—a disgusting spectacle of one man dividing the nation. We had better take the TV cameras away from Joe (Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy) and put them on the problems of America."

He noted that the CIO had proposed to Mr. Eisenhower that he convene a conference to include spokesmen for labor, industry, consumers and the government to work out means of maintaining full peacetime employment in the U. S.

Reuther said: "We get instead, a do-nothing policy, promises and talk of optimism. The Republicans would have us believe that we should not do anything but just sit back and relax. The people who are getting their paychecks every week can afford to relax."

Panty Raiders Are Promised NU Discipline

All students apprehended who caused damage to state property in the spring demonstration at the University of Nebraska definitely will be punished, J. P. Colbert, dean of student affairs, said.

However, a definite course of action has not been determined since the University officials are still investigating the incident. Marjorie Johnston, dean of women, said "We do intend to find out just what happened. We haven't had time to talk to all of the persons concerned."

An estimated 1,000 students attempted a mass storming of the Residence Halls for Women Monday night. Bonfires were started to block traffic on 16th Street and on-lookers and participants were doused with water and festooned with toilet paper.

Few Get Undies
Only a few students managed to get into the dormitories and make off with feminine underwear before being ousted by campus police.

Dean Colbert said men from the Buildings and Grounds department had not yet estimated the amount of the damage to the dormitories. However, entrance lights, flood lights, window screens and frames, windows and locks on the outside doors were broken.

But Dean Colbert said he was "most happy that no one was hurt. The students were just letting off steam and having a good time, just as in a rally before a football game."

The attempted "panty raid" apparently began when a group of students started a water fight. Members of Phi Beta Phi sorority said they were not involved in the initial incident as stated in Tuesday's paper.

No WE Walkout Is Expected Here

No walkout of Western Electric workers is expected here as the Communication Workers of America, CIO, and company contract expired Tuesday at midnight, officials of the union said. The workers are represented by the union. CWA Representative James West, said the union is reluctant to work for very long without a contract but that he did not expect the workers to walkout at the deadline.

He said that a work stoppage would probably not occur until negotiations, which are still continuing, break down or fail to make satisfactory progress.

The union is asking a general wage increase, company-paid hospitalization, improvement in minimum pension provisions and changes in contract language.

Murder Story Still Hushed

The Lancaster County Attorney's office is awaiting psychiatric reports on the suspect-murderer of Penitentiary Guard John Clausen.

Last week, Co. Atty. Frederick Wagener announced the prison death case "had been solved" but that the inmate suspect would be examined by psychiatrists before a determination of charges made. Completed reports from the four psychiatrists are not anticipated until next week. It was understood that the first examination of the inmate was made Monday.

Co. Atty. Frederick Wagener, who has been out of the city this week, is not expected to return until late Friday or early Saturday.

'Copter Rescues Flier And Wife On Mt. McKinley

FAIRBANKS, Alaska (AP)—An Air Force helicopter pilot, maneuvering his whirlybird gingerly in the air currents swirling around lofty Mt. McKinley, rescued a flier and his wife who had been marooned for four days on the peak's snowy slopes.

After three days of 100-mile-per-hour winds and fog, Capt. Ralph Searle of the 74th Air Rescue Squadron landed the 'copter at the 7,500-foot level of McKinley and picked up Mr. and Mrs. Dick Collins of Fairbanks.

Collins' light plane crashed as he attempted to land supplies to a party climbing the highest peak on the North American Continent. Collins and his wife escaped injury.

Senate OKs Plan To Prevent High Court 'Packing'

Controversial Ban Left Out

WASHINGTON — (INS) — The Senate overwhelmingly approved a proposed constitutional amendment to prevent presidential "packing" of the Supreme Court. The vote was 58 to 19.

The proposal was adopted without its most controversial section — a ban against any Supreme Court justice serving as President or vice president until five years after he had left the high court. This was stricken from the legislation by agreement of its sponsor, Sen. John M. Butler (R-Md.).

Withdrawal of this proviso sped passage of the plan but did not silence the lone voice raised in an almost empty chamber against the entire amendment. Sen. Hennings (D-Mo) who led the fight against the defeated Bricker treaty-a m e n d m e n t earlier in this session, branded the Butler proposal as unnecessary "sleeper" legislation.

FDR Try Recalled

The Senate action stirred memories of the unsuccessful attempt of the late President Franklin D. Roosevelt to enlarge the court in 1937.

If passed by the House and ratified by 36 states, the Butler measure would:

1. Hold the number of Supreme Court justices to nine—a move to block any future legislative "court-packing" attempt.
2. Force the retirement of all

Bowring Votes With Majority

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Bowring (R-Neb) voted with the 58-19 majority by which the Senate passed a proposed constitutional amendment that would fix the size of the Supreme Court at nine. It would also require all federal judges to retire when they reach 75 years.

Sen. Butler (R-Neb) was announced as in favor of passage, but was not listed as voting.

federal justices and judges at the age of 75 with full pay, except those judges serving a specified term of years.

3. Prevent Congress from ever withdrawing Supreme Court authority to consider constitutional cases within its appellate jurisdiction.

Open Season

Some of the Senate's senior members, either nearing or past 75, voted for the amendment.

Hennings declared that "this session of Congress seems to have developed into an open season on amending the Constitution."

He recalled that the amendment received only a one-day hearing in the Senate Judiciary Committee and said: "In my

Lincoln Woman 'Good' After 1-Car Mishap At Denton

Gertrude Anderson, 23, of 1908 L. was in a Lincoln hospital Tuesday with a head injury following a one-car accident near Denton. Her condition was reported as "good."

John M. Humer, 22, of 2517 P. who was driving the car, received minor cuts, and the other passenger, Donald Vance, 32, of 1210 D. was treated for a cut on his lip and forehead.

Safety Patrolman James Kontas said the car overturned in a ditch on a curve in the Denton road, about a half-mile west and two miles south of Denton.

Humer said he lost control of the car after a tire blew out on the curve, according to Kontas. The three Lincolns were traveling to Lincoln from Crete when the accident occurred about 1 a.m. Tuesday.

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—The Dade County Grand Jury reported a "call girl" system with an annual take of half a million dollars is being operated on Miami Beach.

It also expressed belief that bookmaking exists in Dade County not only on a "sneak basis," but on "an organized sneak basis."

The jury returned no indictments and named no names in connection with bookmaking and the call girl system.

It recommended rotation of Miami Beach police on racket assignments and Police Chief R. J. Shepard said he would follow this advice, putting a rotation plan into effect June 1.

Controls Are Prepared For 1955 Wheat Crop

More Big Carryover Expected

Nebraska farmers, together with others throughout the wheat-producing areas of the nation, can apparently look forward to more acreage and marketing restrictions on the 1955 wheat crop.

Word of the plans for more controls were announced in Washington Tuesday by the Associated Press, together with a report that 1954 production of winter wheat is expected to reach 707 million bushels for the country as a whole. This is an increase of 29 million over the agency's April estimate.

Situation Similar
The huge supply of carryover wheat which will result this year will create a similar situation to that which caused Secretary of Agriculture Benson to invoke the allotments last year. His aim was to reduce plantings from 78 million acres last year to about 63 million this year.

However, the 1955 crop acreage allotments may be even lower. Charley Clark, specialist with the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee office in Lincoln, said, "unless new legislation is passed the next allotments will cut acreage to 55 million acres for the nation."

The report from Washington said Benson will call the referendum on allotments and controls for sometime in July. Under the law, wheat producers must approve the restrictions by vote before they can go into effect.

Few Instructions
Clark said that only the most preliminary instructions relative to setting up machinery for administering 1955 crop restrictions have been received in the state office in Lincoln so far. Since the breakdown of allotments among the states will have to be available before the referendum can be held, preparations for allotments are expected to pick up speed in the weeks ahead.

The wheat report from the Department of Agriculture said April rains, some in the southwestern drought area, helped winter wheat prospects and also got the 1954 planting and growing season off to an encouraging start for other crops.

The increase in the winter wheat crop, the Department said, would mean about 50 million bushels will be produced over what the market will take. This amount will be added to a record carryover supply of 875 bushels from past crops.

Lincoln Firm Gets Doniphan Terminal Job

KANSAS CITY, Mo. — Great Lakes Pipe Line Company officials said that Olson Construction Company of Lincoln, Neb., low bidder on the general contract for construction of the pipe line company's delivery terminal at Doniphan, Neb., has begun to move equipment on the job.

Doniphan, which is located midway between Hastings and Grand Island, Neb., will be supplied by a 132-mile 8-inch line which is being laid from Nebraska City as a lateral extension of the Great Lakes' system.

First deliveries of refined products from the new terminal are scheduled to be made by late summer. All phases of construction will be completed in November.

Terminal earth work and grading which had been let under separate contract to Biggs Construction Company of Hastings, has been in progress several weeks. Bottom steel is being laid for four of the 14 40,000-barrel tanks.

Painless Dentistry Near, Askey Says

OMAHA (AP)—A Lincoln dentist Tuesday declared that painless dentistry is almost a reality.

New techniques and anesthesia make it so, said Dr. Hollis A. Askey of Lincoln.

He told members of the Nebraska State Dental Assn. meeting here, "hardly ever does a patient have to be hurt anymore."

Comfortable dentistry is a boon to children's dental health, he said. If a child is brought early enough to the dentist's office there is no reason why his dental care should be painful.

Large Community Dam Near Finish On Scribner Farm

SCRIBNER, Neb. (AP) — Construction of a flood control and grade stabilization dam east of Scribner Air Base is expected to be completed this week.

The 35-foot high earth structure is one of the largest privately owned community projects in the state.

Conservation technicians estimated that 1,000 acres of bottomland will be reclaimed for growing crops. The dam is being built to halt erosion in a large drainage ditch from the air base through the Edward Kerstein farm where the dam is located.

The $6,565 structure will be paid for by owners of nine farms, federal and state government agencies including the State Aeronautics Commission.

Routing of sanitary and storm sewage from the air base through the ditch caused erosion and flooded bottomland east from the dam toward Hooper.

Oil Search In Western Area Moving North

SIDNEY, Neb. (AP)—The western Nebraska oil search was pushing north this week with two wildcat locations marked for drilling in northern Cheyenne County and southern Morrill County.

J. R. Holcomb of Denver planned to drill 16 miles west of Dalton in Cheyenne County. The test is identified as the No. 1 Schumacher although an ownership map indicates the land is owned by C. Edgar Leafdale.

Carmack Drilling Co. of Denver was expected to move in rotary tools about mid-week.

British-American Oil Producing Co. is helping finance the venture and Sidney oil sources understood other major companies also had a part in backing the test.

In Morrill County, Gaylord H. Chizum and H. E. Zoller have started the No. 1 Schlumberger about 1 1/4 miles from the Hart Field. The Jet Drilling Co. is doing the drilling.

The land belongs to Dr. and Mrs. Carl Schlumberger of Fremont.

"Sure, I'll tell you what PETROX is..."

PETROX is a new gasoline additive developed by Texaco engineers. Only one gasoline has it: it's exclusive with our new top octane Sky Chief... and the only such additive being used in any gasoline. You've heard about chemical additives, but Petrox is different—it's made entirely from petroleum. Because it hasn't any inorganic chemicals in its make-up, Petrox can't leave any harmful deposits in your engine.

What does Petrox do? Two important jobs. First, it lets your engine develop maximum power. Second, it cuts engine wear.

YOU GET MAXIMUM POWER WITH PETROX. How? Under normal driving conditions, power-wasting leaks occur in your combustion chamber. Two great evils cause these leaks. One is wear. The other—engine deposits. Petrox fights them both.

PETROX CUTS ENGINE WEAR by leaving a fine protective film on all parts it touches—from gasoline tank, to carburetor, to combustion chamber. This protection not only keeps your entire engine younger, it also guards against power leaks that are caused by wear on vital combustion chamber parts. Now what about the other cause of power leaks—the engine deposits? Just this: Petrox eliminates critical deposits that form around rings, valves and other close-fitting combustion chamber parts. The result of this wear-cutting, deposit-cutting job is maximum power... real extra gasoline mileage... and a big cut in repair bills!

OVER A MILLION MILES OF TESTING prove these facts. For instance, on test cars using new Sky Chief, ring wear was reduced up to 45%... intake deposits cut up to 38%... spark plug life boosted over 300%!

Yes sir! This new top octane Sky Chief... 100% Climate-Controlled in all 48 states... is the gasoline for those who want the best. Pull up to the Sky Chief pump and let me fill 'er up for you.

Father's Truck Kills Albion Boy, 5

Child Falls Underneath Wheels

ALBION, Neb. (P)—A 5-year-old boy was killed Tuesday when he was run over by his father's truck.

The boy was Dale Forney, son of Mr. and Mrs. Don Forney, who farm five miles northeast of Albion.

Dale and his father had driven to town with a tractor loaded on the back of the truck. At the rear of an implement company here, the father had driven the tractor off the truck, set his son on the tractor seat and started to drive off.

The father was watching a group of youngsters running from an alley and did not see Dale get down from the tractor and run after the truck. The boy fell beneath the wheels.

Indications were the accident did not occur on a public thoroughfare and hence would not be counted as a traffic death.

Beatrice Lady, Brother Meet For First Time

BEATRICE, Neb. (P)—A Beatrice family reunion has brought together a Beatrice woman and her brother for the first time.

The brother, John Newman, left home 54 years ago, four years before his sister was born. He now lives in Clinton, Okla.

The sister is Mrs. Martha Floyd of Beatrice.

The Newman family—John put a "w" in his name—lived on a farm near Jansen, Neb., when John left home at the age of 14.

For 54 years, as a rancher, railroad, farmer and carpenter, Newman kept contact with the family through Mrs. Augusta Cook of Beatrice, another sister.

"Meeting Martha was one of the big thrills of my life," he said after their meeting here.

More than 50 relatives including seven of Newman's brothers and sisters attended the reunion.

Emergency Loans For Farmers OK'd

WASHINGTON (P)—The House agriculture committee Tuesday approved legislation authorizing 15 million dollars of emergency loans to farmers and stockmen in areas where agricultural credit cannot otherwise be obtained.

Similar legislation has been approved by the Senate agriculture committee. Its immediate purpose is to aid farmers and ranchers in dust-swept areas of the middle-west.

Youth Is Learning To Dance, Play Ball On Artificial Limb

Lincoln Star Special

FAIRBURY, Neb. — It all started with a nagging pain in Barry Dale's right leg last summer. Barry, 14, is the son of Mrs. Paul Paddock of Fairbury.

Barry was busy working for a local florist and didn't pay much attention to the dull ache in his leg until football season started. He went out for the Junior High team, and during the first few days of practice the pain seemed to become worse.

It was thought that Barry had injured his knee during football practice, but X-rays were taken and the doctor's report came with a shock. Barry had cancer and his leg would have to be amputated above the knee in order to save his life.

The doctors and nurses at the Lincoln hospital where the operation was performed were "wonderful," Barry said. The lad didn't complain about his lot, but took it in his manly stride.

In November he returned to school as he is in the 8th grade. Barry's hobby is sports and now after four weeks of trying his artificial limb he has already started to practice basketball, walks the mile home from school once a day, dances and climbs stairs. He has also resumed his lessons on the accordion. Barry has to go to the hospital once a month for a check-up.

Barry has thought out his future pretty well. It is to work hard through high school and then take a two-year course at Fairbury College and enter the teaching profession. A "Barry Dale" fund was started last fall and now the money is converted into bonds, waiting for college days.

Court OK Sought In Surplus Case

The State Supreme Court was asked in a brief filed by the Esse Radio Co. of Indianapolis to uphold a Lancaster County District Court decision in a suit growing out of sale of war surplus property.

Ben L. and Stanley Selig, operating as the Esse Co., obtained a jury award of $70,000 against the Wunderlich Contracting Co. of Omaha. Wunderlich appealed the verdict.

The Esse Company claims the Wunderlich Company failed to fulfill a contract to furnish certain electronic radar scopes and indicators stripped from surplus military planes sold by the War Assets Administration after World War II.

The Seligs say they lost money because they could not fill orders.

POSTCARD

It seemed like a good time to get out of town. Paris just about priced me out. Hotels tack 24 per cent tax and service on the bill. And two rooms for a week at the Scribe belted me $250.

I said I would buy a car and seek cheaper living in Spain and Portugal.

"These mens who sell cars, I think they are all gahngstair-stairs," said my friend, M. Jacques Lemoine, gloomily. Nevertheless, he patriotically suggested a French Simca.

I bought one for $1507. In less than five minutes in the showroom near the TWA office on the Champs Elysees.

The theory is that you buy the car without taxes, being a foreigner. You sell it a couple of months later for $300 less.

This is a good deal cheaper than rentals. Car rentals in France run about $6 a day and 6 cents a mile. You pay 50 cents up for gasoline.

The Simca is in the higher priced bracket. You can buy a Renault Quatre Chevaux for $900. But it is very tiny and lacks power on long hauls.

The man said the Simca would be off the assembly line the next afternoon.

But as happens in France, there was a general strike the next day.

The gentleman painting my Simca went home and cried: "Throw the rascals out."

He came back 24 hours later and gave me my car.

Europe has made car travel easy for Americans. You get "TT" red international plates

Also an international driver's license.

"Bon voyage," said the Simca man.

It started well. At the first corner, Paris traffic had me so confused I ran right through a cop's upraised white club.

He waved me into the middle of the street. You don't pull into the curb here.

"Didn't you see my signal?"

"I don't speak French," I said.

"Like this 'stop!' Like this 'Go!' said the cop showing me with his baton. "Get going."

"Merci beaucoup," I said miserably. "Also bon voyage."

"You said you couldn't speak French," said my 10-year-old daughter accusingly. "You told a lie."

"Not at all," I said. "I do not speak policeman French. Only gahngstair French. You want the policeman to know your father is an American gahngstair!"

Well, this is the way it happens. I paid the hotel bill. The porter brought down the luggage. Taxis honked for an opening in front of the hotel and the doorman screamed "gahngstair" at them.

Do you think American luggage will fit in a French car? Not with a shoehorn. The small European car is built for small luggage. I spread 300-franc notes in all directions and hurried in to the concierge.

The concierge consulted time tables. He said it might take a week or more to send my bags to Lisbon by train. It would cost $65 to send them by air.

I went out and soothed everybody with more francs. The doorman said what I needed was a gallery. He pointed one out.

And that is exactly what I did. I went down and bought a luggage rack that clamps to the top of the car.

California Trip Nets 'Very Good' Industry Prospect

C. V. Price, chief of the Nebraska Resources Division, said he picked up one "very good and active prospect" on his recent trip to California in search of industrial concerns which might be interested in moving to or establishing branches in Nebraska.

He visited both Los Angeles and San Francisco, and placed newspaper advertisements in the two cities calling attention to the industrial opportunities in Nebraska.

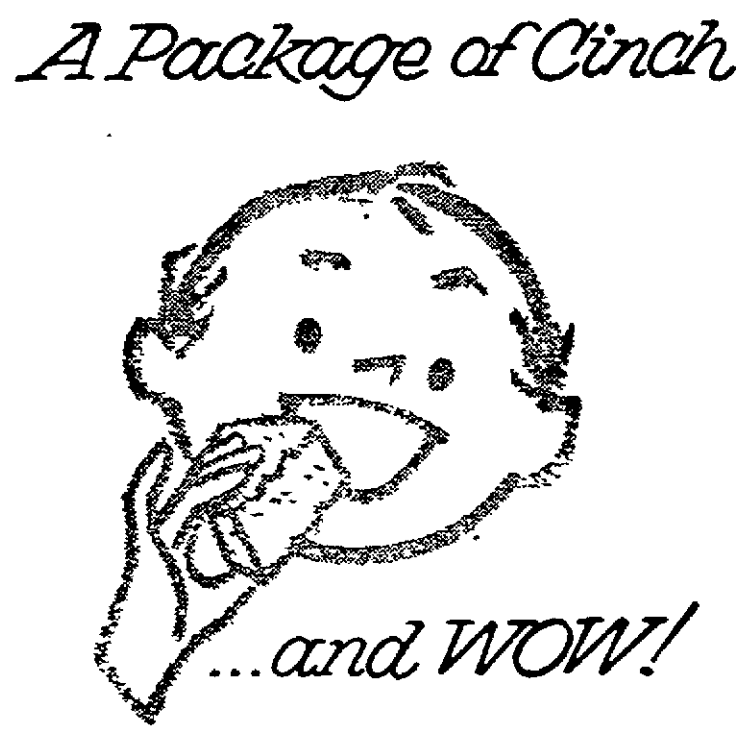

"Our best opportunity lies in southern California, although I did make one good contact in northern California," Price commented.

He said he spent considerable time calling on aircraft manufacturers who might be interested in expanding into this state.

Laniel Demands Another Confidence Vote On Indo-China Issue

PARIS (AP) — Premier Joseph Laniel told the National Assembly it must agree to put off debate on Indo-China or throw him out of office.

For the second time in eight days Laniel demanded a confidence vote on the issue of Indo-China debate.

He won by 311 to 262 last Thursday, but that was the day before the fall of Dien Bien Phu. When the balloting comes up again Thursday he faces a much tougher battle.

Defeat of the government might cause adjournment of the Geneva conference now in session on Indo-China and Korea.

Reluctant Support

Last week many deputies said they were reluctantly supporting the government because the fighting was at fever pitch at Dien Bien Phu and the Geneva conference was getting ready to take up Indo-China.

Since the fall of Dien Bien Phu a wave of resentment has swept over the nation. There have been criticisms that the defenders in the Indo-Chinese fortress were put in an impossible situation.

Unless something can be done between now and Thursday to modify the attitude of some deputies, Laniel seemed to be facing almost certain defeat.

Federal Aid Said 'Boosting Socialized Medicine Move'

By B. R. ROTHENBERGER
Star Staff Writer

Veterans' care policies, federal re-insurance and broadening applications of unemployment benefits were described as strengthening of the national thrust toward socialized medicine by Dr. James F. Kelly, Omaha, retiring president of the Nebraska State Medical Association.

In his farewell address Tuesday during the association's 86th annual session here Dr. Kelly warned that when most of the people have been included in federal care programs private medicine will languish for lack of a field and for the inducement to dedicate young men to prepare themselves for a life of healing service.

Dr. Kelly, who described his year as head of the Nebraska association as one in which private medicine "lost much ground," especially criticized "certain members of our oldest, strongest medical and surgical organizations for working purely in the interests of socialized medicine," and he added, "we should clear our house of them."

Pay Own Way
"We agree," he said, "that veterans with service-connected disabilities should be cared for in veterans hospitals if they wish it. And we agree that veterans with non-service-connected disabilities should receive such care too, if they are unable to pay for private care. But with the exception of hospitalization for tuberculosis, psychiatric or neurological care all financially able veterans should pay their own way."

Dr. Kelly pointed out that the large number of war veterans plus the annual conversion of civilians into veterans by virtue of maintenance of large military establishments will ultimately bring almost all American males into the government program of socialized medicine.

"Add to them the possibility of including veterans dependents plus the beneficiaries of the government's re-insurance program plus those who receive socialized medical care as unemployed or aged and there will not be many private individuals left, medically speaking," he said.

Dr. Kelly objected to what he termed the slander that the doctors are opposing socialized medicine selfishly because of mercenary interests. He also lashed out at charges of excessive fees, incompetence and fee-splitting.

"Young men go into medicine because they have a desire to heal people," he said.

"Life would be easier for them under socialized medicine. They would be paid well. They would have no office cares and plenty of leisure time. Responsibility would be divided. They would not be called upon for study or research."

"But they know that such medicine could only result in a poorly-treated patient."

He added that the lengthening of life expectancy and the acknowledged supremacy of American medicine provided answers to the charge of incompetence.

Scientific sessions will continue through Wednesday with accent on public health.

The annual banquet will be held Wednesday evening at the Cornhusker Hotel with Rep. Walter Judd M.D., Minnesota congressman, speaking on "A Country Doctor in Washington."

The banquet will be the occasion for honoring Nebraska physicians of 50 or more years of service.

Dulles Favors S.E. Pact Authorizing Action Against Attack

Even If Indo-China Falls, Alliance Could Hold Rest Of Strategic Area

By JOHN SCALI

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of State Dulles announced he favors a Southeast Asia alliance which would authorize member countries to put down the attacks by Communist forces in Indo-China.

At the same time, he said that even if all Indo-China falls to Red aggression he believes it would still be possible for an anti-Communist coalition to hold the rest of Southeast Asia, an area he said is of transcendent importance to U.S. security.

Dulles frankly acknowledged that loss of Red-throated Indo-China would make the task of saving the remainder of Southeast Asia far more difficult. But he said the West would never give up in despair.

His remarks at a news conference constituted the first official disclosure he was considering a "united action" formula which would permit the United States and Allied countries to intervene in the Indo-China War.

Dulles added, however, that he did not know whether Britain and other key Allies would agree to any such plan. No specific proposal has been developed yet in secret diplomatic talks, he said.

Ever since Dulles publicly called for a united front last March 25, Britain, New Zealand, Australia and other eligible partners have balked at sweeping commitments which would involve swift action to help

Molotov Hits Asia Pact Plan

... 'Military Bloc' Cited

GENEVA (AP)—Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov hammered at the proposed U.S. security pact in Southeast Asia Tuesday. The deadlocked Indo-China peace talks were temporarily recessed.

Molotov described the proposed pact as "a new military bloc against the peoples of Southeast Asia" and said it was "in contradiction with the interests of peace."

The Soviet minister raised the question in a 19-nation meeting on the problem of unifying Korea. No signs of progress in setting the Korean question were discernible in Tuesday's session.

The discussion of an armistice for Indo-China will be resumed Wednesday in a session of the Big Four, Red China, the three associated states of Laos, Cambodia and Viet Nam and Vietnamese representatives.

Earlier a French spokesman said his government was opposed to major points in the Communist-led Vietnam armistice plan for Indo-China. But he said the French consider the Vietnam proposals, along with France's as a basis for discussion.

The spokesman made clear the French had not rejected the Vietnam proposals, which the United States says are designed to hand over Viet Nam, Laos and Cambodia to eventual Communist control.

British and American spokesmen, commenting on Molotov's speech to the conference on Korea, saw nothing which would help move the Korean talks out of the almost helpless stage to which they have descended.

17-Non-Jury Cases Set By U.S. Judge Delehant

U. S. District Judge John W. Delehant has set 17 non-jury civil cases for trial beginning Monday, May 24. Case titles were announced Monday following a docket call.

DAR Head Urges Internal Vigilance Against Red foe

Mrs. Mabel S. Taylor of Providence, R. I., national president of the Ladies of the Grand Army of the Republic attending the Nebraska state convention at the Lincoln Hotel, warned that this country will face defeat only from within the country itself.

"No enemy from without can ever conquer us," she stated. Communism poses a serious threat to the U. S. and it must be fought with all resources on hand.

She said that all patriotic orders should work together in the fight against Communism. The Ladies of the GAR opened their convention Tuesday and will meet through Thursday. Election of department officers and the annual banquet will be held Wednesday.

Mrs. Leora H. Johns of Lincoln, department president, is presiding.

News Meet Today

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower will hold a news conference Wednesday at 8:30 a.m. CST.

Essential Parts
Present American policy, he said, is based on a drive to save Southeast Asia from Communist domination. But, if parts are lost because of conditions beyond American control, the aim would be to save what he termed the essential parts. In commenting on other world developments, Dulles also:

1. Sharply disagreed with former President Truman's Monday speech, which suggested the Eisenhower administration was either neglecting or abandoning a bipartisan foreign policy.

2. Denounced Communist China anew as an aggressor which has fought, killed or wounded more than 100,000 Americans. He said he would not treat them as personal friends at Geneva or anywhere else until they purged themselves of this guilt.

3. Denied he has suffered a diplomatic defeat at the current Geneva Far East peace conference. He never believed there was a good chance of winning Red agreement at this parley either on Korean or Indo-China problems, he stated.

4. Said he saw no reason whatever to change his basic foreign policies, including his oft-repeated reliance on "capacity for instant retaliation" against any foe. He added these policies are sound, working well and there is no reason to modify them whatsoever.

5. Rejected as unacceptable a Red-sponsored plan for an armistice in Indo-China on the ground it would lead to Communist domination of all three Indo-Chinese states.

To Head Dental Group

MRS. FRED THOMAS

Mrs. Fred G. Thomas of Lincoln was elected president of the Nebraska Dental Association Auxiliary, Tuesday afternoon, at the 25th annual convention of the auxiliary held in Omaha.

Other new officers installed following the luncheon and fashion show at Hilltop House, were Mrs. S. H. Jelinek of Brainard, president-elect; Mrs. H. E. Hooker of Ainsworth, recording secretary; Mrs. F. A. Breeze of Omaha, corresponding secretary; and Mrs. H. A. Capek, Lincoln, treasurer. Mrs. L. D. Arnot will begin the second year of her three-year term as historian.

More than 125 auxiliary members registered for the convention which was opened Sunday afternoon with a musicale at Joslyn Memorial and a tea at Dr. Cecil Mueller's reception center.

Following a dinner Monday evening at the Omaha Athletic Club, an exhibit and talk on her collection of handmade dolls was given by Mrs. Fred Tallman of Omaha.

A chuck wagon dinner Tuesday evening at the Hotel Fontenelle brought the convention to a close.

We Hear That--

Arriving in Lincoln the early part of the week was Gertrude Durnell Faulkner of Casper, Wyo., who will be the houseguest of her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Stuermer, for several weeks.

Word has been received in Lincoln of the birth of a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Ed B. Smith of Sedalia, Mo., on Thursday, May 6. Mr. Smith is the son of Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Smith of Mead, formerly of Lincoln. The couple also has two small sons.

A daughter, Cynthia Lee, was born to Dr. and Mrs. R. H. Jackson of Houston, Tex., formerly of Lincoln, on Thursday, May 6. Mrs. Jackson will be remembered as the former Bobbette Burke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Burke of Lincoln, and a student at the University of Nebraska. Dr. Jackson, who interned at Lincoln General Hospital, is the son of Mrs. Fina Jackson of Havana, Cuba.

DID SOME visiting here, there and around and about town this morning and picked up some this and that in the way of news, and even though it isn't as spectacular as the variety that we have secreted away to tell on another morning, we think it's interesting--

JUST heard that Mrs. H. W. Pratt has returned home after spending several weeks in Kearney where she was the guest of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Rodson Riggs, and where she spent most of her time becoming acquainted with her new grandson, Andrew David Riggs. Mrs. Riggs, incidentally, is the former Marcia Pratt, Delta Gamma at Nebraska.

HAVE NEWS of a bride-elect this morning, too--She is Miss Joyce Burk whose marriage to Dale McCracken will be solemnized on Saturday, May 22, at St. Paul Methodist Church.

Next Monday Miss Burk will be complimented by Mrs. Don Bergquist and Mrs. H. A. Capek who have invited guests for brunch and a miscellaneous shower at the home of Mrs. Bergquist.

And on next Tuesday Miss Burk will again be honored when Mrs. A. H. Lock is hostess at a mother-daughter luncheon at the University club. Luncheon places will be arranged for 12, and the soon-to-be bride will be presented with a hostess gift.

UNDERSTAND that Miss Burk has chosen her sister, Mrs. Roy Meinen of Midland, Tex., as her matron of honor, and that the candles will be lighted by Miss Jane McCracken, sister of the bridegroom, and Mrs. James Kempker.

Robert McCracken will serve his brother as best man, and the ushers will be Roy Meinen of Midland, Tex., and Van Duling of Mason City, Ia.

AND while on courtesy topics we think now is the time to mention that Miss Patricia Loder and her fiancé, Randall Ayer, whose marriage takes place in Wilmette, Ill., on June 23; and Miss Sally Hall and her fiancé, Kenneth Rystrom, whose wedding day is Sunday, June 13, will share honors on Saturday evening, May 29 when Miss Nancee Petersen, Miss Georgia Hulac and Miss Nancy Gardner are hostesses at a picnic at the Happy Hollow club in Omaha. The guest list will include the members of the Kappa Kappa Gamma senior class, and their escorts.

SOMEONE told us that Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Faulkner and Mr. and Mrs. John Ames are back home again after an insurance meeting in New Orleans--and a brief holiday at Clear Point, Ala.

AND AT a no host table for eight at the Country Club's opening dinner dance Saturday evening will be Mr. and Mrs. John Wylie, Mr. and Mrs. Ross Idol, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Prucha, and Mr. and Mrs. C.W.D. Kinsey.

PTA Concludes Year's Programs

Havelock Junior High School teachers were special guests, and a program was given by junior high pupils, at the Tuesday afternoon meeting of HAVELOCK PTA. Mrs. Floyd Parker presided at the meeting, and a talk, "Why Saints Are Saints," was given by Mrs. Clarence Smith.

Mrs. Gail Sanderholm presented a safety report, and reports on the state convention were given.

Mrs. Vernon Vogt presided at the May meeting of CAPITAL PTA Tuesday afternoon when Mrs. Hobb Turner, the guest speaker, told the group of her experiences in Japan and showed pictures of the country.

Following the program, "Sixth Grade Graduation," Mrs. Ted Martens installed the new officers.

Sixth grade pupils and their mothers were honored Tuesday afternoon at the last meeting of the year of PARK PTA. The new officers were installed by Mrs. A. E. Hanne-man, and Mrs. Alex Worster presided at the meeting and was presented a past president's pin by Mrs. Ralph Bauer. Mrs. Donald Oakley gave corsages to Miss Esther Anderson, principal, Mrs. Worster, outgoing president, and Mrs. H. B. Woodford, new president.

PRESCOTT PTA members voted to contribute the proceeds from Fun Night to purchase a public address system and a small radio for the school at the Tuesday afternoon meeting. The group also donated $25 to the special classroom for deaf children at Prescott, and $100 to the school activities fund.

Following a devotional service by Mrs. Calvin Reed, Mrs. Eber Tice installed the new officers: Dr. and Mrs. Marshall Jones, co-presidents; Mrs. Fred Bodie Jr., vice president; Miss Verda Metzger, second vice president; Mrs. Paul Conley, secretary; Mrs. R. W. Huffman, treasurer; Mrs. R. C. Mead and Mrs. J. L. McMasters Jr., council representatives.

Knowland Asks Halt On Partisan Critics; Treason Applies To Reds

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Knowland of California, the Republican leader of the Senate, declared "there is only one group that can be properly charged with being the 'party of treason' and that is the Communist Party."

In a major Senate speech, Knowland said he doubts whether the country has ever been faced "with a greater menace than now confronts us." He called for an end to "partisan carping criticism."

His remarks came less than 24 hours after former President Truman urged President Eisenhower to take vigorous action against forces Truman said are "destroying our national unity and the nation's position before the world."

Truman contended Republican attacks on Democrats are undermining a bipartisan foreign policy in a critical period and that Eisenhower is the man who can halt the attacks.

Referring to a series of speeches by Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis.) that called the Roosevelt-Truman administrations "20 years of treason," Truman said "traitor and treason are words that you can't use in friendship, even while you smile."

In what appeared to be a reply to the former Democratic President, Knowland told the Senate that "neither of our great political parties has a monopoly on patriotism."

"Republicans and Democrats alike," he said, "should, and do, resent any reflection upon the patriotism and devotion to public service of our two great political parties."

After these conciliatory words, Knowland said the Eisenhower administration had made far greater efforts to keep Congress informed of foreign policy than did Truman during the beginning of hostilities in Korea.

Monday Decision

Knowland read into the record an account of Truman's decision in June, 1950, to commit U.S. military power to the aid of South Korea.

The decision, he said, was made Monday evening, June 26. "At this Monday evening meeting," Knowland said, "where the decision was made to commit Air Force and Naval forces there were no Congressional representatives present from either party of either house of Congress." He continued:

"What a sharp contrast this is to the type of consultation which has constantly gone on during the entire Eisenhower administration."

Sen. Stennis (D-Miss.) commented that he, too, "very much regretted" that Truman did not come to Congress for authority to commit American troops in the Korea War.

"But he said the former President was confronted with a somewhat different situation than the Indo-China crisis because in the Korean case, 'the shooting had already started.'"

The Mississippi senator said he always had felt he had no right to criticize Truman's action because he did not get up in the Senate and protest against it within a day or so after June 25, 1950, when the fighting started.

Stennis added that he could not recall that Knowland had made any protest either.

During the debate, Knowland said Eisenhower would ask formal approval of Congress before U.S. combat forces ever are involved in Indo-China or South-east Asia.

40 Officials Who Aided Reactivation Tour Air Base

Nearly 40 state, county and city officials, in addition to Lincoln civic leaders, were taken on a tour of Lincoln Air Force Base Tuesday.

The group, invited by Base Commander Ervin Wursten, were shown a film about the Strategic Air Command, treated to lunch in an airman's dining hall, examined an airman's dormitory and capped the tour with examination of one of the huge KC-97 air refueling tanker planes.

The guests, chosen for their part in bringing about the reactivation, were:

Mayor Clark Jeary, City Councilmen Hush Thorne, Russ Wilkinson, Pat Ash and Joseph Fenton and City Engineer D. L. Erickson.

County Commissioners Russell Brehm, Chris Kuhner and Chaucer Barney and County Engineer Louis Weaver.

State Engineer L. N. Rea and James Ramsey of the state department of Aeronautics.

Chairman C. W. D. Kinsey and members of the Air Base Reactivation Committee: Bennett Martin, A. A. Dobson, A. Q. Schimmel, John Lawlor.

Other civic leaders:

Whitton Butler, Byron Dunn, A. A. DuTeau, Carl Olson, Harold Schimm, Joe W. Seacrest, William Storer Sr., C. E. Swanson, Burnham Yates, Emmett Junge, R. E. Campbell, Nathan Gold, Walter White, John E. Curtis, Archie J. Bailey.

Long Memory

BURLINGTON, Mich. (AP) — Abe Lepper, 24, stopped his car alongside another to ask directions—then did a double take.

"Why you're the same—that hit me in 1945," Lepper roared.

Ernest Lux, 50, rolled up his widow and zoomed away but Lepper gave chase and rammed into Lux's fender. Justice Court received Lepper's $61.50 fine on charges of assault and battery.

The Hope for Hopeless Hair

A RESTOR TREATMENT is just what the name implies, it restores hair to a normal condition, for the many ills of hair, excessive dryness, split ends or damage from improper treatment. It is the quick restoration with the help of keratin, a protein found in normal hair which is often lost when the hair is abused or neglected for a month or two.

RESTOR is a solution of elements for hair designed to penetrate the hair shaft and remain there to revive, strengthen and add weight to limp, dull, scanty, bleached, drab and dyed hair. It will definitely change the appearance with just a single treatment to a more natural look and will make it feel like new grown hair, resulting in a defined and lustrous appearance, more satisfactory permanent waves and will prevent fading in tinted hair.

The whole process takes no longer than a few more minutes and helps to make a bygone of unruly hair.

'Eskimo Pie King' Russell Stover, 66, Dies In Florida

Russell Stover, 66, widely known as the "Eskimo Pie King" and partner in Russell Stover Candies, died Tuesday in his winter home in Miami Beach, Fla.

He developed the "Eskimo Pie" ice-cream bar while working for an ice cream firm in Omaha in 1922. In 1925 he established Mrs. Stover's Bungalow Candies in the basement of his home in Denver, Colo.

The rapidly expanded company, which now includes three factories, one of which is in Lincoln, has grown to include 37 stores and 1,500 agencies over the country.

The Lincoln plant was obtained by Stover in 1943 when he purchased the Gillan and Bonney Candy Company at 8th and P. In the same year the company was reorganized into a partnership and he became a partner in the new firm.

Survivors include two brothers, John and Charles, both of Iowa City, Ia. The body will be sent to Kansas City for services and burial.

Compulsory Red Weddings Are Cited

SEOUL (INS)—South Korea bitterly accused Chinese Communist "savages" of forcing North Korean women to marry Manchurian and Mongolian settlers and soldiers in order to replace North Korea's war decimated population.

Official South Korean spokesman Dr. Hong Kee Karl based the accusation on what he called "indisputable evidence."

Karl declared:

"Communist policy is not only to kill and take away our people, but to force our women to mother the children of those we regard as outside the pale of civilization."

"These compulsory husbands are still savages in our eyes. They have none of the attributes of our civilization or any others."

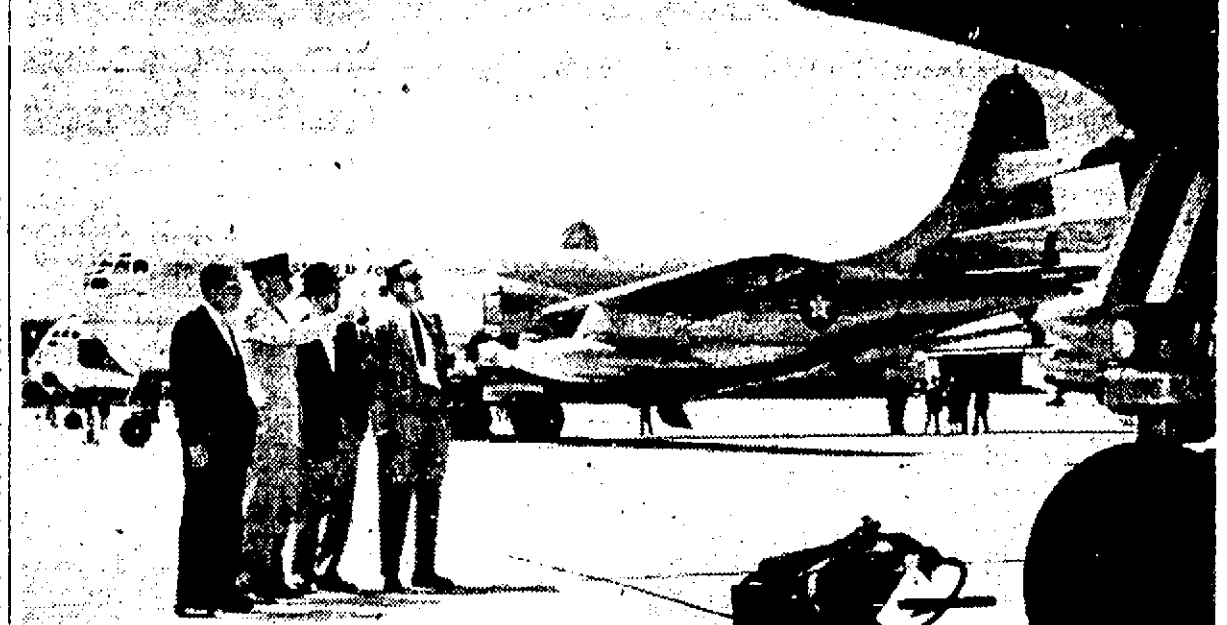

"They are barbarians, and the Communists obviously are intent upon peopling our land with their offspring."

The South Korean statesman expressed the hope that "cries of outrage" would sound from the free world over the Communist forced marriage program.

State Publication Features Pioneer Village At Minden

The Warp pioneer village at Minden is featured in the May issue of the State Resources Division publication, "Nebraska on the March."

"The Harold Warp pioneer village at Minden, not yet one year old, is already acclaimed as having one of the nation's finest, most complete displays of Americana," the publication said.

The writer described the purpose of the collection as being the portrayal of the phenomenal mechanical and social development in America in the last 130 years.

The collection, valued at $250,000, consists of 10,000 historical items depicting mechanical devices or modes of living for each era since 1830.

Development in each field of activity is portrayed in chronological order.

The display's founder is Harold Warp, who moved from Minden to Chicago in 1924 and became one of the largest manufacturers of window materials, the resources publication explains.

The section of 1830 as a starting date for the periods portrayed in the display was summed up in Warp's assertion that "mechanization of the country did not start until after 1830."

"We're still close enough to that time to enable us to gather almost every piece of equipment of major importance developed from the beginning of the mechanical age to the present," Warp added.

County Assessor, Jail Emergency Funds OK'd

Lancaster County Commissioners have approved "emergency appropriations" of $15,000 for the county assessor's office and $2,500 for the county jail budget.

The appropriations from the general fund are to cover budget deficits resulting from increased expenditures which were "unanticipated" for the fiscal year ending June 30.

Assessor Arthur Davis said the additional expense for his office, for which $69,300 had been budgeted, was caused by additional duties imposed by the motor vehicle tax law and the need for mailing real estate valuation notices in connection with the completed county-wide reappraisal.

An increase in prisoners at the county jail was one of the reasons cited by Sheriff Merle Karnopp for increased expenditures in the $27,220 budget for the county jail.

In other action, the commissioners recommended approval for the renewal of the on-and-off sale beer license for the Capitol Beach Beer Garden after Operator Roy Talbot voluntarily agreed to close a service entrance to S street.

"We'll close the fence entrance," said Talbot. "There's no reason to have it open any more since the street has been restricted by 'no parking'."

At an earlier hearing, a petition signed by 54 "residents of the Capitol Beach area" has protested that the continued use of the entrance was "inviting parking on S street."

ROTC Parade At NU Slated

More than 2,000 Army, Navy and Air Force ROTC cadets at the University of Nebraska will pass in review Thursday at 2 p.m. before federal military inspection teams. Also reviewing the parade will be Chancellor John K. Selbeck.

The parade will be held on the East Athletic Field at 14th and Vine. The public is invited to attend.

One of the highlights of the annual ceremony will be a flight of jet aircraft, which will demonstrate the "bombburst"—a sudden scattering of the planes from a tight formation. The Nebraska Air National Guard will sponsor the display.

The Army also will present awards to the outstanding cadets. After the traditional passing in review, the Air Force units will march to the athletic field immediately north of the Coliseum, where graduating cadet officers will formally relinquish their command to the new officers of the current junior class.

Cambridge's Bellamy, Chappell's White Defend Titles

By BILL FITZGERALD
Star Sports Staff Member

Gallord Bellamy and Larry White, a pair of hustlers from the west, will be in town this week end to go for repeats in the state track meet in which they won titles last spring in Class C.

Bellamy is the defending low hurdles champion from Cambridge. He did the 180-yards in :21 in 1953 and has skipped the distance in :20.8 this spring.

White is Chappell's senior athlete who will conclude an excellent career with bids in the century and the 440. He won the quarter mile last year in :52.4. His best time this spring is :52.7.

DeMarco, Cesario Sign

BOSTON (U)—Johnny Cesario of Hartford, Conn., Tuesday was signed to meet Boston welterweight Tony DeMarco in a nationally televised fight at Boston Arena, Saturday, May 22.

New England will be blacked out for the telecast (ABC). DeMarco, holder of a victory over lightweight king Paddy DeMarco (no relation), decisioned Carlos Chavez here in his most recent appearance.

Cesario is a former New England welterweight and middleweight champion.

Teacher Gets Lesson

BIRMINGHAM (U)—Mary Mills an eighth grader from Gulfport, Miss., gave Mrs. Maurice Glick an ex-school teacher from Baltimore, a lesson in pressure play Tuesday in the Women's Southern Golf Tournament.

The chunky 14-year-old, who can hit the ball a country mile, upset Mrs. Glick 1 up in 23 holes in their first round match at the Birmingham County Club.

a performance which has been bettered by the :52 of Jerry Journey of Elm Creek.

In the 100-yard dash White offers a :10.2 which has been

Olympic Ring King To Meet Maxim

NEW YORK (U)—Winner of all 13 of his pro fights, 19-year-old Floyd Patterson will take a giant step on June 7 when he will meet Joey Maxim, the former light heavyweight champion.

"He's ready now," said Manager Custer D'Amato after the Olympic middleweight champion all but knocked out experienced Jesse Turner en route to a unanimous eight round win at Eastern Parkway Arena Tuesday night.

The broad-shouldered, fast-punching Brooklyn Negro staggered his smaller, lighter and unranked foe from St. Louis several times with rights to the chin and floored him for four (the mandatory eight count was given) in the final round with a smashing right to the jaw.

Patterson, who weighed 165½ to the 26-year-old Turner's 157½, won seven of the eight rounds on the cards of Referee Mark Conn and Judge Art Aidala and all eight from Judge Dave Stewart. The AP had Floyd in front 7-1.

"This one convinced me," said D'Amato. "Floyd has learned something with each fight. In this one, against an experienced fighter, he showed me he can use his 'noodle.' Now he's ready for Maxim."

"They wanted me to take Maxim four fights ago," added the manager, "but the kid wasn't ready for such fast company then. Now I think he can take Maxim. How? He'll do it on speed—both with his hands and with his feet."

equalled by Nelson's Dave Smith, Mullen's Don Johnson and Fairmont's Jerry Heinz.

A possible repeat champion was scratched when Lyke Nannet of Syracuse was forced to quit the hurdles because of a bad knee.

Dave Smith or Beaver Crossing's Bob Eberspacher might replace the Syracuse king.

Tom Wittchusen of North Bend and Rod Rowender of Ansley are two names to watch in the half-mile while Elkhorn's Lyle Gottsch and Syracuse's Ray Ehlers are strong milers.

Elkhorn will be strong in the discus with Keith Bernhagen coming in with a 139-10. Dick Nissing of North Bend is close to that mark.

Franklin has a strong bet in the 220-yard dash man, Russ Peterson. Peterson also works with the mile relay team which rates near Elkhorn but is several seconds behind a fast Red Cloud outfit.

Performances in the shot put, discus and pole vault are short of the marks which were recorded in the state in 1953.

880 Relay: 1:31.1, North Platte, 1936.
Mile Relay: 3:32.5, Omaha North, 1951.

Beatrice pins its hopes on Bill Marten, master of both the low and high hurdles and a crack mile relay team. The race between Marten and Knaub in the high hurdles has taken the early spotlight as the possible top battles of the meet.

Incidentally, Knaub made his state record in the preliminaries of the lows last year when old timers were set back on their heels as team-mate Don Comstock came home in the same time to share the record—the boys running in consecutive heats.

Hence the preliminary runs of Knaub, Marten and McIntyre get attention as well as the finals.

An early answer can come to Scottsbluff's chance to repeat as the broad jump and the pole vault finals both are on Friday. Also due on Friday are the 880 finals in all classes.

A rugged challenger for top honors in the broad jump may be equalled by Nelson's Dave Smith, Mullen's Don Johnson and Fairmont's Jerry Heinz.

A possible repeat champion was scratched when Lyke Nannet of Syracuse was forced to quit the hurdles because of a bad knee.

Dave Smith or Beaver Crossing's Bob Eberspacher might replace the Syracuse king.

Tom Wittchusen of North Bend and Rod Rowender of Ansley are two names to watch in the half-mile while Elkhorn's Lyle Gottsch and Syracuse's Ray Ehlers are strong milers.

Elkhorn will be strong in the discus with Keith Bernhagen coming in with a 139-10. Dick Nissing of North Bend is close to that mark.

Franklin has a strong bet in the 220-yard dash man, Russ Peterson. Peterson also works with the mile relay team which rates near Elkhorn but is several seconds behind a fast Red Cloud outfit.

Performances in the shot put, discus and pole vault are short of the marks which were recorded in the state in 1953.

Coley Wallace Faces Gilliam

WASHINGTON, (U)—Coley Wallace of New York and Bill Gilliam of Newark, N. J., a pair of ambitious heavyweights, meet in a 10-round nationally televised bout here Wednesday night.

Wallace, who played Joe Louis in the film version of the ex-champ's career, was getting quite a buildup before he was stopped by Ezzard Charles, another ex-titlist, last year.

But at 25, Coley still has time for a shot at the championship, providing he can get past the dangerous Gilliam, a journeyman fighter who has caused his share of trouble in the past.

Gilliam, 29, has been beaten 16 times in his career as a pro, but has scored 26 victories, including one over Nino Valdez of Cuba, who at one time was being bootered as the logical challenger for Rocky Marciano's title.

Wallace, the only man ever to defeat Marciano, has won 19 and lost three as a professional. All three of his losses were on knock outs, to Charles, Jimmy Bivens and Elkins Brothers.

Wallace's victory over Marciano was scored when both were amateurs back in 1948. It was a close bout decided on points.

Gilliam is rated 10th among the world's heavyweights, while Wallace ranks sixth.

The bout, to be telecast at 8 p.m. CST by the Columbia Broadcasting System, is a substitute for an originally carded 10-round go between Archie Moore, the light-heavyweight champ, and Jimmy Slade, the "spoiler" of the division.

Gayle Voller,
600 North 48th
Milton Hester, 2400 "O" St.
T. O. Haas,
500 West "O" St.
Question: What is the reason for this OK Tire Sale?
Gayle: This is the time of year for our annual, nation-wide, Spring OK new Tire sale.
Q: What do you mean NA-TION WIDE? I thought you were independent Tire
Merchants.
Gayle: That's right, we are.
We own our own stores
but still have the advantage of a nation-wide organization.
Q: What makes these OK
SALES so outstanding?
Hester: We just have a better deal.
Q: How is this possible?
Hester: We have factory to OK Dealer distribution, and 1400 OK stores to insure purchasing power.
Q: Getting back to this new tire sale. I thought you were principally concerned with recapping?
Hester: NO, our main concern is to give our customers a complete OK Tire
Service, and OK NEW TIRES are a part of this service.
Q: Why is the OK TIRE a better, safer purchase?
Hester: Because of the superior quality construction, and OK organization,
we are able to give an OK
nation-wide road hazard guarantee up to 3 years.
Q: Is this a written guarantee?
Hester: YES, this is a written, nation-wide money back, road hazard guarantee, good in any of the 1,400 OK stores.
Q: Milton, what is this T.B.S.
sign you have up here?
Hester: That means Truing,
Balancing, Siping.
Q: You mean you have a tire
lathe?
Hester: You can call it that,
but we call it the James
Auto Float machine.
Q: Auto Float?
Hester: YES, this OK machine will make your car float down the road because we true the high spots off of tires.
Q: You mean to tell me that
tires are not round?
T.O.: YES, they all have high spots in them, regardless of size, make or type. In fact 75% of tire pounding and slap, causing worn, flat spots, is caused by tires not being round. We OK Rubber
Welders being tire specialists know this and now we can do something about it.
Q: If the wheels of my car
were set on this machine could I actually see that my tires were not round?
T. O.: YES, definitely, and we suggest that you do that very thing . . . RE-

Car Ownership Curve Flattening Out

The curve of motor vehicle ownership in Nebraska has begun to flatten out, the final tabulation of 1953 registrations indicates.

While the registration total of 696,837 last year was the highest in history, the increase over 1952 was only 2,727, compared to a gain of 15,364 in 1952 over 1951.

The number of passenger cars continued to climb, going from 472,443 in 1952 to 480,343 in 1953. And the number of farm trucks grew from 76,174 to 78,510. But these gains were offset in part by declines in the number of taxis, buses, commercial trucks, trailers, motorcycles and dealer registrations.

Higher Fees

Fees collected last year amounted to $5,552,935. This represented a gain of $239,306, but is not as much of an increase as 1954 should bring if the number of registrations holds steady. This is because higher fees provided by a 1953 legislative act were not felt to a large extent until this year. Most vehicles already had been licensed for 1953 before the Legislature acted.

The number of registrations in the principal categories last year, and the fees for each:

Passenger cars, 480,343, $2-317,718; farm trucks, 78,510, $330,053; commercial trucks, 59,948, $2,502,196; local trucks, 1,541, $22,834; house trailers, 4,557, $9,382; commercial and semi-trailers, 54,064, $118,558; motorcycles, 3,910, $7,542.

These counties had over 10,000 registrations each: Douglas, 110,419; Lancaster, 55,367; Scotts Bluff, 20,133; Hall, 19,374; Dodge, 15,712; Lincoln, 15,589; Adams, 15,530; Gage, 14,597; Buffalo, 13,318; Dawson, 12,588; Madison, 12,334; Platte, 11,062; Olney, 10,822; Saunders, 10,485; Custer, 10,151.

Jefferson had 7,369; Red Willow, 7,041.

Canada Firm Ordered To Halt Nebraska Sales

The State Banking Department's Bureau of Securities has ordered a Canadian firm to cease and desist from soliciting and offering the sale of securities in Nebraska.

The order was issued against the Quebec Bond and Share Corp. of Montreal, Quebec, in connection with the sale of securities of the Maniwaki Kid Uranium Mining Corp.

Harold Johnson, assistant director, said the Securities Bureau found that the company had solicited sales of securities although not licensed or registered as a securities broker in the state, and that the securities are not qualified for sale in the state and that solicitations appear to be in violation of Nebraska's blue sky law.

Power Line Sought

The Dawson County Public Power District applied to the Railway Commission for authority to build 73 miles of new line and to convert 97 miles of existing line to carry heavier loads in Buffalo, Sherman and Lincoln Counties.

Weather Ahead

Extended forecast for Nebraska.

Temperatures through Sunday will average 5 to 8 degrees below normal, with cool at the beginning of the period and slow warming during the last half.

Normal highs are near 70 above, and normal lows range from the low 40s in the west to near 50 in the southeast. Precipitation will average one quarter inch in the west to half an inch in the east, occurring early in the period and again Saturday or Sunday.

Incorporation Papers

The Aurora Tile Co. of Aurora filed incorporation papers with the secretary of state. Authorized capitalization of the concrete tile manufacturing firm is $50,000. Incorporators were John and Frances Stuchlik, and G. K. and Eleanor Waldron.

K-N To Spend $6 Million On State Gas Handling Facilities

SIDNEY, Neb. (AP) — Kansas Nebraska Natural Gas Co. of Hastings will spend about six million dollars to improve and enlarge facilities to handle gas from the West Sidney field, President Sam Whiteman has announced.

Whiteman's statement followed an announcement from Ohio Oil Co. that gas from the field should be available by the latter part of the year.

Ohio will build a gas treating plant in the field to prepare gas for delivery to the Kansas-Nebraska lines.

Included in the K-N projects set for this year is extension of natural gas service to Alliance. Whiteman said the construction of the transportation line and the laying of a distribution system in Alliance will cost around $850,000.

The firm will use North Central Gas Co.'s line from Sidney to Northport and it will be enlarged.

Whiteman and K-N and North Central have agreed to apply for permission to operate an interconnecting line that would take gas from both the Huntzman and West Sidney fields in Cheyenne County.

Whiteman said "this would be a tremendous protection, especially in event of service interruptions during cold weather" since it would permit either company to step in and serve the other's customers in emergencies.

Kansas-Nebraska plans to build a new pressurizing station at North Platte and installation of a distribution system for Lodgepole.

Existing pipe lines will be enlarged in the North Platte area.

Six-inch pipes will be replaced with 10-inch between Maxwell and Cozad, a new 10-inch line will be laid from Cozad to Kearney and an eight-inch line will be laid from Kearney to Grand Island.

When those and other changes are completed the system will accommodate gas from West Sidney, the Big Springs area and from fields in Logan County, Colo., where K-N holds contracts.

No New Polio Cases

The State Health Department said that no new cases of polio were reported in the state last week. Total reported for the year to date is nine just half of the number reported for a similar period last year.
